KIDS SAIL TRAINING

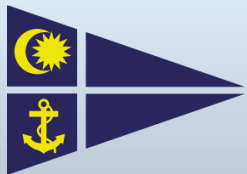

Westports Malaysia Sdn Bhd jointly sponsors with RSYC students from Sekolah Kebangsaan Pulau Indah (SKPI), Sekolah Kebangsaan Pulau Indah 2 (SKPI 2), and Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Pulau Indah (SMKPI) for the sail training programme in RSYC. This year's training started on 15 January and these students are trained by the RSYC Sailing Instructors, En. Rizal Mahadi (Tom) and En. Muhammad Syafiq.

Seven students have been selected for the 18th LADA Langkawi International Regatta which will be held from 9 until 13 February 2022. They are divided into two categories with five of them taking part in the optimist's class and the other two students will be sailing with laser 4.7.

All the best to the RSYC young sailors!

Those who are interested to know more about the kids sail training, please visit our website at <http://rsyc.com.my/> or contact the RSYC Office at 03-31686964.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2022

ROYAL SELANGOR YACHT CLUB
ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING
SATURDAY, 23 APRIL 2022

ANNOUNCEMENT!!!

The Club's next AGM has been tentatively scheduled to be held on Saturday, 23 April, 2022.

Further details to be announced.

RSYC SECURITY TEAM'S QUARTERLY MEETING

The RSYC Security Team held their 1st quarterly meeting on 26th January 2022 with the Security Sub-Committee. It was held in two sessions to allow the guards on both shifts to attend. The sessions were conducted by Mr. Gregory Jarret, the Operations & Security Manager, and Mr. John Rajoo, the RSYC Security Sub-committee Chairman, and went on well. Mr. Kiran Kumar, Rear Commodore, and Ms. Diana Teh, Committee Member, were also present to lend their moral support. En. Khoriri (Man) of the R&M department was in attendance representing the Yard and Grounds Operations.

The meeting was briefed on the status of the current security situation in RSYC by Mr. Jarret. Issues encountered in the performance of their duties were tabled for discussion and addressed with the assistance of the Committee and the Management. Timely and open communications among all parties concerned were emphasized.

Mr. John Rajoo spoke on the crime trend and explained the importance of understanding the nature and sources of crime, detection, prevention and deterrence. A short video was shown to get the message across to the security guards to better understand their roles and responsibilities.

CHAP GOH MEI ON 15 FEBRUARY 2022

Chap Goh Mei is celebrated on the 15th night of Chinese New Year and marks the end of Chinese New Year celebrations when lanterns are lit and hung, and people watch lion and dragon dances on the streets.

RSYC wishes all Chinese Members and associates a Happy Chap Goh Mei!
